today's service

Fake News: I Have To Prove My Worth

For many people, the gospel is supposed to make people religious. People who truly follow Jesus are devoted to attending Sunday services, volunteering at church, and most importantly, following the rules; constantly trying to prove their worth. But is this what the “good news” is all about? Did Jesus die so that we could all become more religious?

CONVERSATION STARTERS & NEXT STEPS

1. Do you tend to be a rule follower or a rule breaker?
2. Where do you feel free in your faith? Where do you feel burdened or enslaved? How can freedom help us make wise choices?
3. What are some unrealistic or borderline ridiculous religious pressures people feel in the church?
4. Reflect on your motivations or lack thereof to do “Christian things” (i.e. attend church, read the Bible, pray, serve a cause, etc.). Which activity could you try approaching differently this week out of the motivation to love God and others well?
5. If you're drawn to the new life of love and faith that Jesus has in mind, but have never been baptized, we'd love to explore the journey with you. Email baptism@southridgechurch.ca to start the process.
